

INVESTMENT FRAUD PREVENTION PRESENTATIONS

James Brandolino voluntarily confessed to running an 8-year Ponzi scheme—despite never being caught, investigated, or under suspicion.

A former operations and trading desk manager at a major Wall Street firm, he now helps investors and organizations protect themselves from financial predators and investment fraud.

James delivers an insider perspective that transforms how audiences approach trust, due diligence, and fraud prevention. He is the author of the upcoming book Investigate Before You Invest.

Please welcome James Brandolino!

ETHICS & CE TRAINING PRESENTATIONS

James Brandolino delivers ethics training from a perspective few educators can offer. A former operations and trading desk manager at a major Wall Street firm, he voluntarily confessed to running an 8-year Ponzi scheme—despite never being caught, investigated, or under suspicion.

Drawing from the ethical failures, pressures, and rationalizations that led to his own downfall, James provides an unfiltered look at how ethical erosion happens and why good professionals make devastating decisions. He now helps licensed professionals recognize ethical risk early, confront pressure with clarity, and protect their careers, clients, and reputations.

Please welcome James Brandolino!